

Central Valley Project Cost Allocation Study

Tuesday, November 19, 2013

2800 Cottage Way, Cafeteria Rooms C-1001/C1002, Sacramento, CA 95825

Public Meeting on Historical Benefits – 10 a.m to 12 p.m.

10:00-10:10 Welcoming Remarks – Brooke Miller-Levy, Project Manager

10:10-11:00 Historical Benefits Presentation – Karl Stock, Manager, Water and Environmental Resources Division, Policy and Administration, Bureau of Reclamation

11:00-11:55 Questions & Answers / Discussion

11:55-12:00 Closing Remarks & Next Steps

12:00-12:55 –Lunch

Public Workshop on CVP Cost Allocation Study Models – 1-3 p.m.

1:00-1:05 Welcoming Remarks – Brooke Miller-Levy, Project Manager

1:05-2:55 Presentations on Models (approximately 20 minutes each)

Farm Budget Tool (irrigation) – Rob Davis, Agricultural Economist, Economics, Planning & Technical Communication Group, Technical Services Center, Denver, Colo.

Statewide Agricultural Production Model (SWAP) (irrigation) – John Jordan, Economist, Mid-Pacific Region Planning Division, Sacramento, Calif.

Least-Cost Planning Simulation Model (LCPSIM) (Municipal & Industrial) – John Jordan, Economist, Mid-Pacific Region Planning Division, Sacramento, Calif.

M&I Demand Model (Municipal & Industrial) – Steve Piper, Economist, Economics, Planning & Technical Communication Group, Technical Service Center, Denver, Colo.

PLEXOS (Power) – Mary Johannis, Deputy Planning Officer, Mid-Pacific Region Planning Division, Sacramento, Calif.

CalSim (Hydrology) – Nancy Parker, Water Resources Engineer, Water Resources Planning & Operations Support Group, Technical Service Center, Denver, Colo.